Admission to Classes

Before attending any class, students must have completed the registration process. Students who attend classes without completing the registration process will not be considered as officially enrolled.

Payment deadlines are posted on the College homepage for each semester and academic calendar.